5.7. The Supplier will be entitled to recover payment for the Goods notwithstanding that ownership of any of the Goods has not passed from the Supplier.

5.8. The Goods will be deemed sold or used in the order delivered to the Customer.

The maximum period for which such goods shall be retained by the Supplier ("the Maximum Period") shall be as agreed between the Supplier and the Customer or, where no specific arrangement has been reached for the maximum period for which the Goods are retained by the Supplier, such period shall be deemed to be 6 calendar months.

6.2. All Goods remaining retained at the end of the Maximum Period shall, at such date, be deemed to have been the subject of a purchase order on that date from the Customer to the Supplier and which has been the subject of an Order Acknowledgement for prompt delivery to the Customer. Payment will be required in accordance with Clause 7.

7. Price and Payment

7.1. The price for the Works will be the price set out in the Order Acknowledgement (or otherwise agreed in writing) between the parties.

7.2. Each price is based on the scope of the Works and the instructions and information provided by the Customer. The Supplier reserves the right (in its absolute discretion) to amend the price to cover any increase in cost which may arise as a result of additional Works being requested by the Customer (and agreed by the Supplier) or additional or incomplete instructions or information being provided by the Customer.

7.3. Quotations given in a currency other than sterling are based on the rate of exchange at the time of quoting and (unless otherwise agreed in writing between the parties) the price may be subject to revision if any different rate of exchange is ruling at the date of invoice.

(Unless otherwise agreed in writing and subject to circumstances in which free delivery may be available as set out in this Clause 7.4) the price for the Works is exclusive of any value added tax (and any other tax or duty relating to the manufacture, transportation, sale or delivery of the Works) and any costs or charges in relation to export and/or import, packaging, loading, unloading, carriage and insurance. Such costs and expenses will be paid by the Customer when it is due to pay for the Works. Works may qualify for free delivery, depending on the designation of the Customer and the volume of Works ordered in a given period. Further details may be obtained from the Supplier's Sales Office.

7.14. The Supplier may (but will not be obliged) at any time or times without notice to the Customer set off any liability of the Customer to the Supplier against any liability of the Supplier to the Customer (in either case howsoever arising and whether such liability is present, future, liquidated or unliquidated). The Supplier and Customer agree that in exercising this right to set off, the Supplier shall be doing no more than discharging its own liability by the application of its own asset. Any exercise by the Supplier of its rights under these Conditions will be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to the Supplier under these Conditions or otherwise.

7.15. If the Customer fails to pay the Supplier any sum due pursuant to the Contract the Customer will, subject to Clause 7.16, be liable to pay interest to the Supplier on such sum from the due date for payment at an annual rate of 4% above the base lending rate of HSBC Bank plc from time to time accruing on a daily basis until payment is made in full (whether before or after any judgement).

10. Quality

10.1. The Customer acknowledges that the Supplier is not the manufacturer of the Goods and may not itself perform any or all of the Services and that the Supplier's expertise is in the sourcing of the Works only. The Customer acknowledges that as an intermediate supplier of the Goods the Supplier only checks the external packaging of the Goods for obvious signs of damage and does not in any way inspect the quality or condition of the Goods themselves.

10.2. The Customer acknowledges that the manufacturer of the Works typically provides warranty assurances directly for the benefit of end users of the Works.

10.3. The Customer acknowledges that the Supplier does not hold itself out as having any particular expertise in relation to the actual Works and the Customer agrees that it relies entirely on its own skill and judgement in evaluating the suitability and fitness of the Works for its purpose.

10.4. The Customer acknowledges that the prices charged by the Supplier for the Works are based strictly on the quality assurances set out in this Clause 10.

11.3. Returns Authorisation Number ("RAN"). An RAN must be obtained from the Supplier's Customer Service Office before any return will be processed in accordance with this Clause 11. Goods returned without a valid RAN are likely to be rejected by the Supplier (see Clause 11.9 below). RANs are valid for 10 days from the date of issue. If the Goods are not returned within 10 days the RAN will be cancelled and a new RAN must be requested if the Customer still wishes to return the Goods. When preparing the Goods for return the Customer must ensure that a debit note is included which is consistent with the RAN and which clearly states the RAN on its face.

11.4. Unwanted Goods: Unwanted Goods are the responsibility of the Customer. The Customer acknowledges that the Supplier is under no obligation to accept the return of unwanted Goods but that the Supplier may accept the return of unwanted Goods, at its entire discretion, within 1 month of receipt by the Customer. 11.5. Returns Due to Late Delivery: Returns due to late delivery must be requested within 24 hours of the due delivery date. The original purchase order must contain details of any cut-off delivery date and the Supplier must agree in writing that a deadline for delivery had been accepted by the Supplier. If the Supplier has accepted such deadline the Supplier will at its own cost arrange for the collection of goods falling into this category.

11.6. Defective On Arrival ("DOA") Goods:

11.6.1. DOA Goods are those which have a fault on delivery. The fact that there is a fault must be confirmed by someone with technical knowledge and the Customer must provide as much specific technical detail as is reasonably possible. DOA Goods must be notified within 14 days of delivery of the Goods in order to qualify for credit or replacement (at the Supplier's option and in the Supplier's absolute discretion). The packaging of the Goods must be in pristine condition and, unless otherwise agreed, if it is not then the Customer will be subject to a 20% handling/restocking fee. The Supplier shall arrange for and shall bear the carriage cost of collecting the Goods. If the Customer returns the Goods to the Supplier, then the Customer shall bear the carriage costs of so doing, unless otherwise agreed with the Supplier.

11.6.2. No Defect Found ("NDF"). If Goods are returned and are found to be of NDF status they shall be treated as unwanted Goods under Clause 11.4.

11.7. Goods Returned Not In Original Condition. Goods returned where the packaging and/or contents is found not to be in its original condition are likely to be rejected on arrival. Should the Supplier agree to accept such Goods (in its absolute discretion) the Supplier reserves the right to impose an additional handling/re-stocking fee of 20% of the original sale value of the Goods. Should items be damaged in transit during its return to the Supplier it is the responsibility of the Customer (and not the Supplier) to take this matter up with the carriers.

11.8. Packaging and Labelling. Where possible, the packaging of the Goods being returned should be protected by using an outer cover. The Customer should not write on, or attach labels, to the packaging itself if this can be avoided. When preparing the Goods for return the Customer should ensure that the RAN is easily visible on the debit note and all other return related paperwork accompanying the Goods and in related communications.

11.9. Any Goods returned otherwise than in accordance with the foregoing provisions and any Goods which are NDF and not agreed by the Supplier as being eligible for return under Clause 11.4 shall be either rejected by the Supplier or, at its discretion, stored for no longer than 14 days by the Supplier and the Customer must arrange for collection of such Goods in such period, failing which, the Supplier shall be entitled to dispose of such Goods without compensation or payment to the Customer.

11.10. Overdue Accounts. The Supplier may, at its discretion, refuse returns from any Customer whose account is overdue.

11.11. The Supplier will not be obliged to comply with any of the provisions in this Clause 11 in relation to allegedly faulty Goods unless:

11.11.1. (where the Goods are faulty and the fault is apparent on reasonable inspection) the Customer gives written notice of the fault to the Supplier within 7 days of the date of delivery of the Goods; and

11.11.2. (where the Goods are faulty and fault is not apparent on reasonable inspection) the Customer gives written notice of the fault to the Supplier within 7 days of the date when the Customer discovers or ought reasonably to have discovered the fault.

11.12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Clause 11 if the Goods are found to be faulty but:

11.12.1. The fault arises as a result of the Customer's or any other person's negligence;

11.12.2. The fault arises as a result of fair wear and tear or abnormal working conditions;

11.12.3. The fault arises as a result of any misuse, physical damage (including but not limited to faulty installation, dropping, spillage or foreign objects) or accident (unless the Supplier is directly responsible for such);

11.12.4. The Customer or any other person makes any further use of the Goods after giving written notice of a fault;

11.12.5. The fault arises because the Customer or any other person has failed to follow the Supplier's or the manufacturer's instructions (whether oral or in writing) as to the storage, assembly, use, installation, handling or maintenance of the Goods or (if there are none) good trade practice;

11.12.6. The fault arises as a result of any testing or commissioning of the Goods performed by the Customer or any other person;

11.12.7. The fault arises as a result of any alteration, servicing or repair of the Goods not made by the Supplier; or

11.12.8. The Customer acknowledges that the Contract states that the Goods are sold in their actual state without warranty; then the Customer acknowledges that the Supplier is not obliged to comply with its obligations under this Clause 11, and that the Supplier reserves the right to apply a reasonable labour charge to the Customer without completing any repair and the Supplier reserves the right to retain the Goods until a purchase order is received covering the labour charge and the return freight cost.

12. Ethical Trading and Compliance with Laws

12.1. The Customer shall, and shall ensure that its directors, officers, employees, agents and any other third parties that perform services on its behalf shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to:
